Gen. Alger Makes a Response to a Little "Pome."

Slashed by Would-be Robbers—A Hunter Killed by Accident—A Brakeman Crushed—Armour Denies an Endowment Story.

By Telegram from the Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The opening of the Santa Barbara County Building today was attended with the most gratifying results to the management and to the Santa Barbara people who came specially for the day and opening. The decorations in the building called forth exclamations of praise from every one, not only because of their unique character and design, but on account of the fact that all the decorations are of home production. The walls have been covered with burlaps, while the ceiling is concealed by 5000 pampas plumes, which wave gently in the breeze entering through the open windows. In the center of the room rises a square column of olive oil in bottles, and around the sides are arranged the food products of the county. The windows are latticed with stems of palms and ferns, and the floor is decorated with burlaps artistically arranged and drawn.

In the reception-room, where the receiving committee, headed by Mayor Gaty and wife, were engaged in their pleasant duties, the decorations are, if anything, more elaborate, and in addition two sides of the room are covered with the celebrated collection of paintings of the old missions by H. C. Ford, whose untimely death occurred recently. The Indian baskets arranged around the floor are the best specimens of this work ever seen, and the decorations are being put up as rapidly as possible.

In the next room is the celebrated Salada collection, which has attracted so much attention and which is really worthy of special notice. As Salada's life in the late war gave him groundwork for his exhibits, he has collected with much labor and great pains a most creditable array of historical souvenirs of the rebellion. The most striking feature of the Santa Barbara Building is the complete absence of color in decoration except that provided by nature and this fact was freely commented upon by the visitors.

Today also appeared on the Midwinter Fair calendar as the children day. The weather was perfect. After the crowds had enjoyed the other exercises and the many interesting sights to be seen about the grounds, they directed their attention to Festival Hall, where an elaborate programme of exercises was successfully carried out.

The exercises opened with prayer by Rev. Dr. W. W. Case, after which W. A. Tolchard, president of the day, made introductory remarks. He paid a happy compliment to Gen. Alger and to the Michigan people present. He was followed by Director-General de Young, who gave a brief history of the Midwinter Fair. A poem, entitled "Michigan's Welcome to Gen. Alger" was read, to which Gen. Alger responded in a brief but eloquent address. A letter of regret on account of his inability to attend was received from Gov. H. H. Markham.

Numerous other instrumental selections were rendered, and the exercises closed with a general reception, at which all guests were made to feel at home.

The total admissions to the fair today were 10,378.

PLOTTING A DELUGE.

Men Arrested in the Act of Cutting the Buena Vista Levee.

BAKERSFIELD, March 12.—Twenty-five armed men yesterday attempted to cut a channel through the levee of Buena Vista Lake, which it now used as a reservoir to control the water to irrigate the lands of Miller & Lux and others. Officers were sent at once to the scene, twenty-five miles from here, and arrested twelve men. One was made a cut twenty feet long and six feet wide, but not deep enough to start the flow of water. The reservoir covers fifty square miles to a depth of ten feet, and if the men had succeeded an immense tract of country would have been flooded and much damage done. The parties implicated are claimants and settlers on lands in the vicinity.

Some years ago there was long litigation over water-rights between Miller & Lux and Haggin & Tevis and Carr. They had finally agreed to divide the water among themselves, but it is now evident that some of the parties to this contract are dissatisfied, as the men arrested state that they were authorized to cut the levee by some of the contracting parties. It is feared the present trouble will lead to the renewal of the old litigation, which lasted for years and caused the Governor to call an extra session of the Legislature to enact irrigation laws. Officers are now after the rest of the parties implicated.

PROTECTING HIS COPYRIGHTS.

Gen. Harrison Pledges the Press to Respect His Property Interest.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—Ex-President Harrison today delivered his second lecture at Stanford University. None were admitted except students and professors of the university and representatives of the press pledged beforehand as a condition of admission to publish no report of the lecture except that authorized by Gen. Harrison himself.

In explanation of this matter Gen. Harrison said: "I have a proprietary interest in these lectures. I desire, after the course is completed, to publish them. I do not wish to vitiate my copyrights in any manner. I do not wish to be put in a false or ridiculous position by such reports as have been published to my misfortune on several occasions. For this reason I have prepared an abstract of the lecture which I deliver today. The subject of the lecture was 'Civil Rights and the Growth of Unwritten Law.'"

A Victim of the "Prize Dynamite Outrage" Gives Testimony.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 12.—The curious crowd that has attended the trial of John Tyrrell for committing the dynamite outrage of last September saw a most pathetic spectacle today. Lord Roseberry Declares His Policy.

Home Rule Favored, but Not at This Session.

Gladstone's Speech Against the Lords is Indorsed.

Cohabitation in Labor Disputes to Be Effectuated—Local Government for Scotland—Discussion in the Commons and in the Lords.

By Telegram from the Associated Press.

LONDON, March 12.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Parliament reassembled this morning. The Queen's speech says that negotiations with the United States for carrying out the award of the Bering Sea arbitration are in progress. Her Majesty expects a calm, dignified examination into the recent collisions between the French and British forces in West Africa. The Commons are informed that estimates will soon be submitted making adequate provisions for defense of the empire. The speech points out that agrarian crime in Ireland has been reduced to the lowest point in fifteen years. It promises a report for the settlement of the evicted tenants' question and also an amendment to the registration laws; the abolition of plural voting and dealing with the ecclesiastical establishments of Wales and Scotland; local government for Scotland on the same basis as recently achieved in England, Wales, and direct control of the liquor traffic. The speech also proposes conciliation in labor disputes, and an amendment to the Factory and Mines Act.

A large crowd gathered in the vicinity of the Foreign Office at noon to witness the arrival of the leaders, who were to attend the great Liberal meeting. Prominent Liberals, including Premier Roseberry and Sir Vernon Harcourt, were lustily cheered. Lord Roseberry presided. Addressing the meeting he alluded in eulogy to Gladstone and declared the Liberal party had not changed its policy in the least since Gladstone's resignation. All of the present Cabinet was pledged to the same policy as the former one. It had no intention to recede from any of the measures supported by the former government. He declared the honor of England and the peace of Europe was safe with the present government.

With regard to the Irish question, Roseberry said the government was bound to try by ties of honor and affection. The policy of the Liberal party was not less definitely pursued. Doubt on this point should be set at rest by the pledge of the retention of John Morley as Chief Secretary for Ireland. He had been offered a higher office but declined it, his duty not to sever his career from the Liberal party.

The present government had entirely identified itself with Gladstone's declaration in his last parliamentary speech touching the House of Lords. The speaker had long been forcing itself on the Speaker, that under the existing democratic suffrage the House of Lords was an anomaly, especially since the Lords had been turned from a body of hereditary law-givers into a body of a single party leader. When the Tories were in office the power of the veto was not exercised, but when the Liberals were in power the veto was exercised at the dictates of the Tory leader. The Liberals were not blind to the danger of this situation and would not, he said, lose sight of any measure constitutionally presented to the country in this perilous anomaly to which it is exposed.

Roseberry declared he would not go to the extent of saying that the peers parliaments or debar them from opportunities of serving the state, but he agreed that there was great inconvenience when a Premier was not in the House of Commons. While he remained Premier, he would ensure that no Liberal in the ranks would endeavor more steadfastly to do his duty to the party. (Loud cheers.)

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, followed. He declared the House of Commons assembled at this hour to give an account of the House of Commons' last speech with regard to the House of Lords was an inheritance for the party, and that it would prove the greatest subject of the future.

The House of Commons assembled shortly after 4 o'clock. The Irish members gave an enthusiastic welcome to John Morley. After an address in reply to the Queen's speech had been proposed and seconded, Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour, the Conservative leader, paid a graceful tribute to Mr. Gladstone. Balfour then complained that there was no mention in the Queen's speech of questions relating to Eastern Asia, Siam, Malacca, Uganda, and, referring to the promised reinstatement of evicted tenants, the speaker warned the government that the Conservatives would oppose any proposal to give persons who, for political purposes, had defied the law, portions of the public fund. Any such measure, Mr. Balfour concluded, would be a menace to the future of the country and would put a premium on agitation.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, the Liberal leader, opened the reply to Balfour with a glowing eulogy of Gladstone. Sir William said he was glad that the House of Commons assembled at this hour to give an account of the House of Commons' last speech with regard to the House of Lords was an inheritance for the party, and that it would prove the greatest subject of the future.

The House of Commons assembled shortly after 4 o'clock. The Irish members gave an enthusiastic welcome to John Morley. After an address in reply to the Queen's speech had been proposed and seconded, Rt. Hon. A. J. Balfour, the Conservative leader, paid a graceful tribute to Mr. Gladstone. Balfour then complained that there was no mention in the Queen's speech of questions relating to Eastern Asia, Siam, Malacca, Uganda, and, referring to the promised reinstatement of evicted tenants, the speaker warned the government that the Conservatives would oppose any proposal to give persons who, for political purposes, had defied the law, portions of the public fund. Any such measure, Mr. Balfour concluded, would be a menace to the future of the country and would put a premium on agitation.

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, the Liberal leader, opened the reply to Balfour with a glowing eulogy of Gladstone. Sir William said he was glad that the House of Commons assembled at this hour to give an account of the House of Commons' last speech with regard to the House of Lords was an inheritance for the party, and that it would prove the greatest subject of the future.

PARLIAMENT OPENS.

Lord Roseberry Declares His Policy.

Home Rule Favored, but Not at This Session.

Gladstone's Speech Against the Lords is Indorsed.

Cohabitation in Labor Disputes to Be Effectuated—Local Government for Scotland—Discussion in the Commons and in the Lords.

By Telegram from the Associated Press.

LONDON, March 12.—(By Atlantic Cable.) Parliament reassembled this morning. The Queen's speech says that negotiations with the United States for carrying out the award of the Bering Sea arbitration are in progress. Her Majesty expects a calm, dignified examination into the recent collisions between the French and British forces in West Africa. The Commons are informed that estimates will soon be submitted making adequate provisions for defense of the empire. The speech points out that agrarian crime in Ireland has been reduced to the lowest point in fifteen years. It promises a report for the settlement of the evicted tenants' question and also an amendment to the registration laws; the abolition of plural voting and dealing with the ecclesiastical establishments of Wales and Scotland; local government for Scotland on the same basis as recently achieved in England, Wales, and direct control of the liquor traffic. The speech also proposes conciliation in labor disputes, and an amendment to the Factory and Mines Act.

A large crowd gathered in the vicinity of the Foreign Office at noon to witness the arrival of the leaders, who were to attend the great Liberal meeting. Prominent Liberals, including Premier Roseberry and Sir Vernon Harcourt, were lustily cheered. Lord Roseberry presided. Addressing the meeting he alluded in eulogy to Gladstone and declared the Liberal party had not changed its policy in the least since Gladstone's resignation. All of the present Cabinet was pledged to the same policy as the former one. It had no intention to recede from any of the measures supported by the former government. He declared the honor of England and the peace of Europe was safe with the present government.

With regard to the Irish question, Roseberry said the government was bound to try by ties of honor and affection. The policy of the Liberal party was not less definitely pursued. Doubt on this point should be set at rest by the pledge of the retention of John Morley as Chief Secretary for Ireland. He had been offered a higher office but declined it, his duty not to sever his career from the Liberal party.

The present government had entirely identified itself with Gladstone's declaration in his last parliamentary speech touching the House of Lords. The speaker had long been forcing itself on the Speaker, that under the existing democratic suffrage the House of Lords was an anomaly, especially since the Lords had been turned from a body of hereditary law-givers into a body of a single party leader. When the Tories were in office the power of the veto was not exercised, but when the Liberals were in power the veto was exercised at the dictates of the Tory leader. The Liberals were not blind to the danger of this situation and would not, he said, lose sight of any measure constitutionally presented to the country in this perilous anomaly to which it is exposed.

Roseberry declared he would not go to the extent of saying that the peers parliaments or debar them from opportunities of serving the state, but he agreed that there was great inconvenience when a Premier was not in the House of Commons. While he remained Premier, he would ensure that no Liberal in the ranks would endeavor more steadfastly to do his duty to the party. (Loud cheers.)

Sir William Vernon Harcourt, Chancellor of the Exchequer, followed. He declared the House of Commons assembled at this hour to give an account of the House of Commons' last speech with regard to the House of Lords was an inheritance for the party, and that it would prove the greatest subject of the future.

General Routine
Business.

The Eighth Ward had no representative at yesterday's meeting of the City Council and Councilman Campbell was absent. The members present were Messrs. Nickell, Munson, Strohm, Rhodes, Innes, Pessell and President Teed.

After the reading and approval of the minutes Councilman Strohm moved that the City Engineer prepare the necessary survey and map for the opening and widening of Lemon street between Seventh and Ninth streets.
Adopted.

A communication from the Water Overseer said:
"In view of the fact that we are about to commence clearing and repaving the various streets, and in order to avoid the expense of purchasing tools, I desire to borrow from your committee in charge twenty-five shovels and fifteen picks."

The request was granted.
The Street Superintendent reported, asking permission to repair certain holes in paved streets as mentioned in a list by him presented. Referred to the Board of Public Works.

The demands were approved.
The report of the manager of the free labor bureau for the week ending March 10 showed the total number of applications for employment to be ninety-four, and the total number of positions secured sixty-one.

MOTIONS.
President Teed moved that the Street Superintendent, through his inspectors, report to the Council the number of hours worked by every contractor now grading a street or constructing a sewer. Adopted.

President Teed moved that the Park Commissioners be requested to remove from the paved streets in St. James Park the piles of old paving material now there, and keep the streets unobstructed for public travel. Adopted.

President Teed moved that "Whereas, there has been serious caving in on the Grand-avenue sewer, known as the Hill-street district sewer, endangering life and necessarily destroying for public use the street, which was due to careless or improper timbering; resolved, that the Street Superintendent insist that the contractor timber the opening where deep excavation is being made for a brick sewer from top to bottom, or in a manner to absolutely preclude the possibility of caving in." Adopted.

Councilman Munson said he believed there should be some arrangement made whereby the construction of sewers in the city can all be under the superintendency of one man, and the matter was referred to the Sewer Committee to confer with the Street Superintendent in reference to it.

Councilman Innes moved that the report of the commissioners for the regrading of Temple street be taken from the table. Adopted.

He then moved that the present proceedings for the regrading of Temple street between Grand avenue and Kuster street be abandoned.

President Teed wanted to know what the adoption of this motion would result in and Mr. Munson asked if the motion were to be adopted would not some of the property-owners bring suit against the city for such abandonment.
The City Attorney was sent for and Assistant City Attorney Dunn came in response to the call. He said he thought it better that a resolution including the proposition to abandon should be drafted and accordingly the Council requested the City Attorney be requested to report at the afternoon session whether there be any legal objection to the abandonment and if there be none, then to present a proper resolution to abandon.

President Teed. That does not commit us.

"That does not commit you to anything. That's the position you would like to be in, I know," said Attorney Dunn as he left the room.

PUBLIC WORKS.
The Board of Public Works reported the following:
"In the matter of the petition from W. F. Whittier and others asking that the alley running easterly from Los Angeles street between First and Re-quesena streets be widened to an equal width with Jackson street, we recommend that the same be referred to the City Engineer to prepare the necessary survey of land to be taken to be furnished to the City Attorney, and that the City Attorney be instructed to prepare and present the necessary ordinance of intention for opening said alley." Adopted.

"In the matter of the proposals for the improvement of Hancock street from Alhambra avenue to Mission road, we recommend that the bid of Schaefers, of $460 for the work complete, be accepted and the necessary resolution of award adopted." Adopted.

"In the matter of the proposals for the improvement of Fifth street between Fourth street and Lucas avenue, we recommend that the proposal of Robert Sherer, grading, $4.40 per lineal foot and curb 25 cents per lineal foot, on each side, be accepted and the accompanying resolution of award adopted." Adopted.

"In the matter of the proposals for the improvement of Fourth street from Lucas avenue to Fifth street, we recommend that the proposal of D. F.
Donegan, grading and graveling, $2.80 per lineal foot, and curb 20 cents per lineal foot, be accepted, and the necessary resolution of award adopted." Adopted.

"In the matter of the proposals for the grading of alley in block 21, of the Bonnie Brae tract, we recommend that the proposal of R. Sherer, grading 30 cents per lineal foot, be accepted, and the resolution of award adopted." Adopted.

SEWER MATTERS.
The following was presented:
"We, the Sewer Committee, to whom was referred the proposals for sewer on Hope street, would recommend that the bid of Frick Bros., for $84 cents per lineal foot for the sewer complete, be accepted, and that the necessary resolution of award be adopted." Adopted.

"We would also recommend that the bid of J. B. Hughes, for $673, for sewer complete on Washington street, between Figueroa and Hope streets, be accepted, and the necessary resolution of award be adopted." Adopted.

The City Clerk reported, in the matter of changing and establishing of the grade of Burlington avenue from Arnold street to a point 153 feet south of the south line of Maryland street, that it would be in order to pass the final ordinance ordering the work. Action in the matter was deferred till afternoon.

The City Clerk further reported that it would be in order to pass final ordinances for the following: Sidewalking Union avenue, between First and Temple streets. Adopted.

Sewering Twenty-second street, between Main and Figueroa streets.
Adopted.

The report further stated that on August 21 last he was instructed not to advertise for bids for the grading and curbing of Moore street, between Seventh and Ninth streets until further orders from the Council. Action on this portion of the report was laid over for thirty days.

Councilman Pessell moved that all contractors who after this date still persist in ignoring the State law and work their laborers over eight hours per day shall not be awarded any contract. Adopted.

THE UNEMPLOYED.
The following petition, as signed by M. J. Byrne and dated March 10, was read:
"I respectfully call your attention to three or four hundred of the unemployed in the San-Pedro and Second-street warehouse sleeping on the hard floor with no bedding, and some with a brick or board for a pillow, and this morning, with a crust of dry bread and hot water, with a little coffee in an oyster or sardine box to drink from, and all American citizens. It's fearful."

President Teed, who had called Mr.
Strohm to the chair, said the city had already expended $20,000 in providing work for the unemployed. He moved to refer the communication to the Associated Charities.

Councilman Munson said he saw by the papers that the Supervisors had stated that that board is taking care of all the poor of the city. He believed the communication should be referred also to the Supervisors, and it was so referred.

The requisitions were approved, except one from the Water Overseer, for a twenty-two-inch valve for zanja No.
8R, where it connects with the Westlake pipe line, the estimated cost of which was $200, and one from the Chief Police, for the printing of 300 copies of his annual report.

Afternoon Session.
Hearing coming up on the appeal of J. S. Haigler, asking that the assessment warrant for work on Union avenue, to set aside the prayer of the appeal was granted, and the Street Superintendent was instructed to issue a new warrant.

In the matter of the change of grade on Burlington avenue, the report of the commissioners to the effect that no damage be awarded, was adopted.

Messrs. O'Brien and Gould, representing the organization known as the Industrial Army, appeared before the Council and asked it to use its influence on the Santa Fe Railroad Company, to the end that the local members of the organization may be given transportation toward Washington.

Mr. O'Brien said the desire was to leave the city in peace, but if they cannot have the railroad take them then they will have to take the railroad. All the men enlisted are on the muster roll as American citizens.

Mr. Gould said the intention is to take as good care of the men as they can while on the way. The men will go unarmed.

President Teed moved that the Southern California Railroad Company be requested to furnish such transportation as it can to the unemployed men desiring to travel eastward from this city.

This motion was adopted, and Mr.
O'Brien thanked the Council, after which he and his fellow-speakers retired.

The Sewer Committee reported:
"We have conferred with the Street Superintendent and find that it would be agreeable to him to have the services of Mr. Vincent. We therefore recommend that Mr. Vincent be instructed that it is a part of his duty to confer with the Street Superintendent, with reference to the construction of the sewers now in course of construction in the city."

ENGINEER'S REPORT.
The City Engineer reported:

"Ordinance of intention to pave with bituminous lime rock, with concrete base, Fifth street, between Main and San Pedro streets." Adopted.

"Ordinance of intention to construct a cement walk on the south side of Fourth street, between Hill street and Grand avenue." Adopted.

"Final ordinance, establishing the grade of Burlington avenue, from Arnold street to a point 153 feet south of Maryland street." Adopted.

Councilman Munson moved that the Street Superintendent be instructed to build a culvert across Second street, at Fremont avenue, 12x18 inches, to carry away the stagnant water standing on the south side of Second street.
Adopted.

Councilman Munson moved that the Street Superintendent be instructed to fill Third street to the established grade from the west line of Grand avenue to a point about one hundred and fifty feet east of Grand avenue. Referred to the Board of Public Works.

NEW TELEPHONE COMPANY.
The following petition was referred to the Board of Public Works:

"We, the undersigned, directors of the Los Angeles Telephone Company, respectfully petition your honorable body for a franchise to construct, maintain and operate a telephone system, with permission either to erect poles or lay underground conduits, or both, on the streets of this city. In consideration of the above franchise being granted we will furnish the City schools and city offices with telephones free of all charge, and will ask the Council to fix the rates for use of telephones in private residences, offices and stores. Very respectfully,

G. D. THOMPSON,
W. J. HAMILTON,
W. R. BURKE,
SIMON MAIER,
M. C. MARSH,
H. T. BURLEY,
Secretary.

PETITIONS.
From the electric railway company, asking permission to connect with the zanja at Seventh street and Grand avenue, and to use water from said zanja. Zanja Committee.
From George S. Patton, asking that a certain tax-sale certificate be canceled. Finance Committee.

From C. L. Shumway and another, asking permission to grade, gravel and curb Thirty-third street, between Main street and Grand avenue. Board of Public Works.

From Mark G. Jones and others, asking that West Picot street, between Pearl street and Union avenue be cement sidewalked.

From Mrs. George Reed, calling attention to an alleged arbitrary action on the part of the Street Superintendent in ordering a cement walk across Trinity street at Washington street. Board of Public Works.

From Johnson & Keeney Company, asking that proceedings be instituted for opening Twenty-first street from a point 124 feet west of Bonsoal avenue to Norwood street. Board of Public Works.

REDONDO HOTEL SPECIAL ANNOUNCE-MENT.

On and after the 1st of April, and until May 1, rates at the Redondo Hotel will be $17.50 to $20 per week, and including daily transportation between Redondo and Los Angeles. Fine orchestra in attendance at meals and in the parlors every evening.

Card of Thanks.
I hereby tender my heartfelt thanks to those who kindly assisted me in my late bereavement in the death of my beloved husband, especially to my neighbors.

MRS. H. BRUNING.

PETTY OFFENDERS.

Cases Disposed of by the Police Justices Yesterday.

In the Police Court yesterday afternoon the following matters were disposed of by Justice Austin: Seven "drunks" were convicted and fined in sums ranging from $3 down, and three vagrants were tried, convicted and given opportunities to leave town before sentence was passed upon them.

Henry Mara, a "Jap," was arraigned upon the charge of battery preferred against him by a Japanese courtesan, who occupies one of the cribs on Alameda street, and upon entering his plea of not guilty thereto was ordered to reappear for trial on Thursday next.

The bunco-steerer, Charles Myrtle, who worked the locket fake upon William Smith to the tune of $46, was arraigned upon the charge of obtaining money by means of a trick. After entering his plea of not guilty, he demanded trial by jury, whereupon the case was set for March 22, bail being required meanwhile in the sum of $300.

John O'Brien, who was convicted of petty larceny on September last, appeared for sentence before Justice Seaman, and was fined $30 with the alternative of thirty days in the City Jail.
He was committed.

For having disturbed the peace of Charles Markshauer Justice Seaman committed Tom Burns to the City Jail for twenty days.

Chris Gaberman, a vagrant, was given a five days' "hoister."

HOUSES BURNED.

Two Dwellings Destroyed by Fire on Bunker Hill Avenue.

At 4:45 o'clock yesterday afternoon a fire was discovered in the basement of the double house, No. 113 North Bunker Hill avenue, occupied by Rudolph Suetling and E. L. Overweg. An alarm was turned in from box 51, to which the fire brigade responded, but meanwhile the blaze gained such headway that when the engines reached the top of the steep hill on which the house stood the building was almost entirely consumed and the roof of the adjoining house, a two-story frame, occupied by John Ross, was already burning. The result was the first house was completely wrecked and the upper story of the Ross residence was considerably damaged.

The origin of the fire, which started in a corner of the basement in which the kindling was stored, is unknown, and none of the occupants of the burned building appeared to be able to account for it, since neither matches nor oil were kept in the vicinity of the kindling.

Suetling's loss, which consisted of the building and half of the contents, is estimated at $2500; insurance, $1500.
Overweg lost most of his furniture and effects, but was insured for $500, which will more than compensate him.

Ross sustained damages estimated at $500, which is fully insured.

Held to Answer.

City Justice Seaman held a preliminary examination yesterday afternoon into the case against Charles McDonald and Frank Long, the young men charged with having committed burglary at the residence of J. B. Lankershim recently, and at the close of the evidence ordered that they be held to answer, under bonds in the sum of $2000 each.

John H. Ryan, the hobo who cut G. W. Longworth in the abdomen because the latter refused to accede to his demand for alms on the night of March 4, near the corner of Second and San Pedro streets, was examined and held to answer to the charge of assault with a deadly weapon, by City Justice Seaman yesterday afternoon.

AN UNIQUE CASE.

A Southern California Woman's Strange Experience.

How Science Erugnt the Vanished Roses Back to Her Cheeks—Her Grateful and interesting Testimony.

Southern California, while famed far and near as a health resort, and as a place where the weak and worn-out invalid may regain strength and vigor, is sometimes furnished with cases of so peculiar a nature that the beneficent effects of climate seem to have little or no effect upon them. In such instances, when cures are made by the use of some drug or medicine, the result is looked upon somewhat in the light of a miracle, and people are curious to know how such a wonder was worked. It was to investigate the reported cure of a Mrs. Emma Ludden that a reporter took the train from Los Angeles the other day for Beaumont.

It was shortly after 12 o'clock when the reporter reached Beaumont, and, after a few inquiries, sought out the Ludden residence, which was a neat cottage built in the midst of an orchard of fruit trees.

In response to a knock a lady of perhaps 40 years of age opened the door and invited the reporter to enter. She was quite tall and somewhat stout, and altogether the last person in the world whom one would imagine had been near the approach to death's door. The reporter was at first inclined to believe that he had been mistaken, and was about to inquire if Mrs. Ludden was at home, when the lady herself relieved his mind by saying, with a smile, "You probably wanted to see Mrs. Ludden, and thought that she was a different sort of a person, I suppose. Well, a few months since I didn't look much as I do now, and I don't think that I would care to pass through the same experience again. Indeed, I hardly see that I ever shall need to, now that I have obtained a remedy which has proven so efficient. Tell me the story of my recovery? Certainly, if it will be of any value to your readers, and I do believe that it will. I will go back quite a time and give you the whole history of my sickness. It was nearly six years ago that my husband and I came from the East and settled in Beaumont. I was naturally of weak constitution, some members of my family having died of consumption, but felt fairly well for a time. Finally I took a trip back to visit a sister in Illinois, and while away took a bad cold, which gradually developed into a settled cough. I returned to Beaumont in hopes that I would recover, but instead of getting better I became worse and worse. In addition to the cough, a sort of general complication of ailments seemed to settle upon me, and I became utterly miserable. The most singular part of the whole matter is that the doctors did not seem able to tell just what was the matter with me. Some said it was neuria, others rheumatism, and still others nervous prostration, and the medicine they gave me had no apparent effect. I had about given myself up as a victim of the hereditary disease of the family when I was advised to take some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I did so, and at once experienced decided relief. From the moment the first box had been used up I began to mend, and I continued to use the pills until I regained my spirits and health. I am not entirely strong yet, but I am mending so rapidly that I know that I will soon be as well as I ever was.

"Since I have become myself again, my friends have told me that they often said among themselves when I was so low that I could not possibly live long, and had almost daily expected to hear that I was sinking. They were all anxious to try the remedy, and since my recovery I have sent for an extra supply of the Pink Pills in order to accommodate them, as there is no drug store in the place."

An analysis of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People shows that they contain, in a condensed form, all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves. They are an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of a grippa, palpitation of the heart, pale and sallow complexions, all forms of weakness either in male or female, and all diseases resulting from vitiated humors, in the blood. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent post paid on receipt of price 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50—they are never sold in bulk or by the 100 by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

ANOTHER CUT.

Santa Fe Makes a Small Reduction.

Competitors Accused of Dealing Through Brokers.

The War is Carried East of the Missouri River.

Heavy Travel to the North—Passengers Waiting to Go East—General, Local and Personal Mention—Scrap Heap.

As has been heretofore stated in The Times the ticket brokers in this city have been making rates of $3 or so below the tariff of the railroads to Eastern points. Though the regular passenger agents claimed that the brokers were only working off old stock they knew that the rate cutting was being done on the regular tickets bought here. Representatives of the roads have had their spotters busy getting evidence to convict their rivals of some underhand methods of securing business. General Passenger Agent H. G. Thompson of the Santa Fe's Southern California line claims to have proof that the Union Pacific is systematically cutting under the $30 rate to Missouri River points, not only through the brokers, but over the counter of that company's office here. The cutting, it is claimed, is done by buying a regular $30 ticket from the Southern Pacific office and then giving the passenger a cash rebate of $3 or $2.50. So convinced is Mr. Thompson that this is being done that he yesterday said he would telegraph the Interstate Commerce Commission a three-days notice of the Santa Fe's intention to meet openly and above-board the cut rates thus made by the Union Pacific or other roads. The threat that on the 15th inst. the Santa Fe will sell tickets over its counters to all who apply, at the rate of $17.50 to all Missouri River points and $30 to Chicago.

G. H. Herr of the Union Pacific expressed surprise when informed of the charges against him. He said that his blue eyes looked out into space as he murmured his opinion of the Santa Fe's action. Mr. Herr wished to be quoted as saying that no rates had been cut in his office, but he didn't know what the brokers were doing. Mr. Herr's indignation seemed directed less to the accusation of his cutting rates than to the allegation that he had done it openly, over his own counter. Those who best know Mr. Herr would hardly accuse him of the sort of duplicity which the Rock Island, when asked about his alleged share of the matter was given as usual but noncommittal. It is said on excellent authority that no less than eighteen tickets were yesterday sold over his road at rates about $2 or $2.50 below the $30 tariff, and business was quite good in his office. All these cuts, so far as known, were made through brokers. Under existing circumstances it is needless expenditure of money to pay full tariff rates for tickets to the East.

Santa Fe officials at both ends of the great system, deny the truth of the report that they will combine with the Southern Pacific in a fight against the Union Pacific. It is also pertinent to state that the Southern Pacific officials are just as emphatic in the denial of utilizing the Santa Fe as an ally to fight the Union Pacific. The Southern Pacific has no cause to fight the Union Pacific, for no matter what through rates the latter road may make the Southern Pacific will receive its full passenger rates on the business based on the $20 tariff rates. The Southern Pacific in Los Angeles is not cutting rates, leaving all manipulation to be done by representatives of the connecting lines. Thus the Southern Pacific makes its 53 per cent. of $20 on all tickets sold at Los Angeles for Missouri River points, no matter what the traveler paid for the transportation.

REDUCED WEST-BOUND RATES.
CHICAGO, March 12.—The Atchison today announced that, taking effect March 15, it will put into effect a rate of $10 from Chicago to Kansas City, Atchison, St. Joseph and Leavenworth. The reduction is made because the Atchison found in scalpers' hands tickets to San Francisco over the Chicago and Northwestern and Union Pacific office being sold for $20. The one-way rate quoted by the Atchison will reduce the through rate from Chicago to California $2.50. It is currently reported today that the Atchison and Southern Pacific had agreed to restore matters to the status of March 1 and arbitrate. Local officials of the Atchison, however, denied having such information.

SCRAP HEAP.
East-bound travel is comparatively light now, despite the ruling low rates. A large number of people are anxiously watching for the ten days' notice of restoration of rates. The ten days following the publication of such notice will see lively passenger business eastward for one way and round-trip tickets.

The date of the Santa Fe's withdrawal from the Western Passenger Association is celebrated by a reduction of the rate between Chicago and the Missouri River. Carrying the war east of the river will stir up demoralization worse than ever, if differences are not soon patched up.

The train for San Francisco, which left at 2:30 p.m., yesterday, was delayed here half an hour by adding to it one sleeper and a freight car for baggage. The train consisted of thirteen cars heavily loaded.

F. C. McFarlane, stenographer in the general freight department of the Southern California road, is happy over the arrival of a new boy baby at his house.

DEVIOUS DEVICES IN TACOMA.
A Trades Union Journal Plays the "Scab" Act and Sells Out.

(Tacoma, Evening News.) The purpose for which the Morning Union has been maintained by designing managers during the past two months has at last been accomplished—the paper has now been sold to City Treasurer Boggs and a coterie of city politicians, who desire to retain their hold upon the city. They will use it as a club with which to threaten the Republican party into doing their bidding. If the Ledger attempts to do any "throwing down," as the political phrase goes, the Republicans will be told that somebody else is now capable of the same athletic exercise.

For months the union men of this city have been united upon to support the Morning Union, believing that it had but one purpose—the support of union principles. They did not know that the lowest wages paid to printers in this city were paid by the Typographical Union's own paper. They did not know that the Morning Union had defied the laws of the Typographical Union, and although pretending to be a union paper, had not paid the scale of wages a single week since its establishment. They believed it to be a loyal union paper, yet it was more false to union principles than any other paper in the city. We enlarge denial of these statements. We refer to the Trades Council, before which the facts have been laid. We refer to the protests sent on by union printers of this city to the president of the International Typographical Union. The Morning Union has not paid the union scale of wages one single week since its establishment.

Why was it kept alive?
First—That Charles E. Hawkes, who was its manager, and who came from Seattle to take charge of the fight against the Ledger, might draw $48 a week as salary, while the high wages on the cases were drawing less than $10 a week; and Second—That the paper might be sold out when the campaign came on to the very men who have now gained possession of it.

(The Morning Union was put on its tottering feet some months ago by striking printers, to fight the Ledger, another morning paper, which had refused to surrender to the strikers.)

LETTERS TO THE TIMES.

Some Artistic and Architectural Mugs.
LOS ANGELES, March 12, 1894.—(To the Editor.) For the past several days I have been waiting patiently expecting your publication to take cognizance of the sudden exploitation of a hitherto peaceful and unassuming class of citizens into a rampant promiscuity.

I refer to the highly decorative "mugs" published a few days ago in a weekly artizan paper.

If your attention has heretofore been attracted to these, you have undoubtedly already perceived one more reason for Southern California congratulations in her architects, and a permanent assurance of all future matters pertaining to the artistic.

The expressions, though thinly disguised by the "pale cast of thought," seem indicative of the fact that the heaven-born passions within. As if one moment's relaxation of the bonds which hold in check the tugging masses would be sufficient to convert a city hall or design a town pump.

Respectfully yours,
J. W. F.

The Barbarism of "Call."

STATE NORMAL SCHOOL, LOS ANGELES, March 12, 1894.—(To the Editor.) As an educator, I wish to tell you that I appreciate the statements for which this morning's paper in regard to the use of "Call," instead of "Cal." I hope you have settled the matter. The Pasadena man is not the only one who has made up his mind, if it ever came into general use, to always write out the full name. Please accept the thanks of a teacher.

Respectfully,
EDWARD P. BERRY.

(The "Call" also the sandjak sheriffs and the akhounds have got to go. Yes, by the beard of the California lion, they have got to migrate.)

PUBLIC LIBRARY.

Taken Off the List of Government Public Depositories.

An official announcement has been received to the effect that the public library of this city has been taken off the list of government public depositories and it is presumed the intention is to transfer it to one of the northern libraries of the State, although five depositories are distributed between San Francisco, Oakland and Sacramento. The notification has been sent Senator Stephen M. White, who has written that it will have his immediate personal attention.

It would be a considerable loss to the public library here, if it was to be dropped from the list of depositories, for as such it receives many valuable government publications. It is expected the Chamber of Commerce will make some action in the way of an endeavor to have the library remain a public depository, as it was largely through the efforts of the chamber and of the local newspapers that the appointment was secured for this city about three years ago.

Marriage Licenses were issued yesterday at the office of the County Clerk as follows:

Fred Alfred Bronson, a native of Iowa, aged 23 years, a resident of Antelope, to Louise E. Higley, a native of Idaho, aged 23 years, a resident of this city.

William M. Taylor, a native of California, aged 21 years, to Ida Covington, of same place, native, aged 13 years, both residents of this city.

Alfred Suenon, a native of Norway, aged 21 years, to E. S. Grace Hillier, a native of Nebraska, aged 20 years, both residents of Pomona.

Howard S. Green, a native of Maryland, aged 35 years, to Varnie Clements, a native of Iowa, aged 24 years, both residents of this city.

John Moser, a native of France, aged 25 years, to Louise V. Jago, a native of Louisiana, aged 17 years, both residents of this city.

Chamber of Commerce Hand-book.

The Chamber of Commerce will shortly issue a new annual hand-book for the use of members. It will contain the president's annual address; the secretary's annual report; membership up to date; history of the organization; a list of the members; and a description of all its publications. In addition to this will be published pictures of all the officers and directors. Speeches, letters of regret, and a description of the banquet given at Santa Monica last month, together with a list of charter members, and the by-laws will also be given. One thousand copies will be printed, and will be ready by April 1.

To Exchange Votes.

A proposition has been received by the Chamber of Commerce from a resident of Mono county, offering to exchange votes in the contest for the two Chronicle cups at the Midwinter Fair. He states that the northern county is making a fight for the best mineral exhibit and adding that as Los Angeles county is making a good showing in the contest for the best general product exhibit it would be well to exchange votes. He has 120 votes for the latter exhibit, which he is ready to trade for an equivalent in mineral exhibit ballots.

ACCORDEON Pleated Capes new today. The latest novelty by express. If you want the newest and latest you will find it here in the big progressive Cloak Department. The prices are $6.50, $7.50, $8, $9, $10 and $12. More new millinery today and the millinery trade is beginning to show great activity. Some beautiful new shapes in hats came in last night by express. The Millinery Department has been refitted throughout and presents a most attractive appearance now with all the newest and latest in ladies' head gear. Prices very much lower than ever.

The Dress Goods Department is showing 100 pieces of new all-wool Challies. Plenty of navy blue and black grounds. The figures this season are very much smaller than last, neater styles and richer shades and a relief from the loud effects of the past few seasons, half-wool challies, 29 inches wide, 35c; new dark grades, half-wool challies, 24 inches wide, 20c and 25c, the styles and coloring equal to the higher priced goods.

Swivel Silks for waists 75c a yard; washes splendidly. Butter color and old ivory laces with the insertions to match. Lace is the big seller in the dry goods line this season. There is nothing their equal for popular favor. Our assortment is by far the largest we ever carried. If you need laces at a reasonable price we can certainly please you. Ribbons are another great seller this season; wide ribbons for the latest Alsatian Bows and San Regal scarfs, New Windsor Ties in extra widths. All shades. Carriage shades 75c, $1, $1.25, $1.50, $1.75, $2. Navy blue Parasols with the new Dresden handles, black parasols in all sizes from $1 up, for nice silk goods. More new roses today in the Millinery Department. Ladies' Jersey Ribbed Underwear, 33c, 50c, 75c, $1; best qualities we ever offered for the money. Ladies' fast black Hose 10c, 12½c 15c, 16 2-3c, 25c; extra fine at 25c, large outside sizes for fleshy ladies; children's extra heavy fast black with double heels and toes and long elastic top 25c a pair. "Around the Bay of Naples."
Rev. Henry G. Spaulding delivered a lecture on "Around the Bay of Naples" last evening at the First Methodist Church, for the benefit of the Epworth League. The affair was very well attended, and proved interesting. He said that the Newport of ancient Rome was Pompeii. The shores of the Bay of Naples were dotted with the watering-places and villas of the denizens of Rome. The stereoscopic pictures illustrative of the locality discussed were thrown upon the screen. He described the island of Capri where Tiberius built twelve villas. This Emperor did all he could to beautify and adorn the island, as it was a favorite retreat of his. Mrs. Spaulding did not agree with the popular ideas regarding Tiberius. He did not think him the monster of cruelty that he is supposed to have been. He spoke briefly of the tomb of Virgil, the ruins of Capri and also treated of the Doric architecture. In conclusion he referred to Mt. Vesuvius, touching upon its former history and describing the most striking features of its present appearance.

THE EAST SIDE.
Youthful Chicken-thieves Arrested—Case of Withholding.
J. V. Wachtel and family leave today for Omaha, Neb., and other points in the East, expecting to be absent for some months.
Hellman street is being put in good shape, south of the avenue, and men were yesterday busy laying the gutters. The work will probably require a couple of weeks yet before completion.
For some time past the police have been receiving complaints regarding chicken-thieves, who have been operating quite extensively among the ranches along the San Fernando road. Most of the losses appeared to be reported on Sunday evenings or the day following and the officers were on the lookout accordingly. Last Sunday Officer Craig, with the assistance of a citizen, caught a boy named Chester Franklin in the act of carrying off a sack containing five chickens from the ranch of Joseph Wirtman, an old reclus who lives just beyond the Arroyo Seco. The boy, who is but 13 years old, and lives with his parents on Truman street, admitted his guilt and on being questioned confessed that he and his elder brother, Florin, aged 15 years, had been out on the same errand before. The older boy was arrested at his parents' home and yesterday the pair were taken over to town, where they pleaded guilty to the charge of petty larceny and will be sentenced by Justice Austin this afternoon.

Spite Work.
W. E. Pile, who was arrested several days ago upon complaint of Mrs. Sallie Hollowell of Thirty-sixth street, on a charge of disturbing the peace, says his case never came to trial, but was dismissed that he was trying to collect a bill, and the woman spitefully had him arrested.

It matters not what your trouble may be, come and let the doctors examine your case. If it is curable they will tell you so. Call and satisfy yourself that the doctors understand your case.

A BATTLE IN THE SKY.
Strange Sport for Tourists in Rubio Canyon.
While the one hundred and forty passengers off the first morning train to the Mt. Lowe Railway were waiting their turn to ascend the great incline, attention was attracted to a shrill and exciting colloquy going on in the upper atmosphere. Searching glances up and down the canyon to locate the clamor, when some one pointed to the sky at the left and the incline and the attention was attracted to a shrill and exciting colloquy going on in the upper atmosphere.
